

The Aviation Industry Association is pleased to announce that we have recently commenced a relationship with NZForex a global foreign exchange specialist. Register Free Here

Many of our members are simply unaware of the high margins and fees that are applied by the Banks for International transaction, this has prompted the AIA to partner with NZForex. On behalf of our members, we have negotiated rates of exchange which will not be beaten, the difference in exchange rates can often mean savings into the tens of thousands of dollars. They can also provide you with advice & hedging tools in order to assist you in managing the volatility of the foreign exchange markets.

Not only will you be getting a much better rate of exchange, but you will also be supporting the AIA, we will receive a 10% profit share of revenue generated from every transaction, plus NZForex have waived the minimum transfer threshold and all transfer fees for Aviation Industry Association members.

NZForex was formed in 2001 with the aim of creating a smarter, online alternative to existing foreign exchange services. Focusing on providing individuals and corporate clients with a better deal, the NZForex group has over 100,000 clients globally who transfer in excess of $10Billion NZD per annum.
