Good morning

The Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (MBIE) is undertaking a review of New Zealand's standards and conformance infrastructure. This review has a specific focus on the standards system in New Zealand.

The purpose of the review is to develop proposals for a viable and well-functioning standards system that meets the needs of businesses, regulators and consumers into the foreseeable future.

To help our analysis of issues for this review, MBIE is interested in understanding the value that a range of users derive from the standards system in New Zealand.

You can learn more about the review, the issues MBIE is seeking input on, and how stakeholders can provide input, at <http://www.med.govt.nz/business/standards-conformance/2012-standards-and-conformance-infrastructure-review-seeking-input-from-stakeholders>. The closing date for input is 31 July 2012
