

AEANZ – plotting the new direction

It's about building a sustainable organisation which adds value to its members. While Boots was present at the meeting two groups were established, one to look at the business of AEANZ and the other to do the integration of SLAET. An excellent nomination from the group has been received for a position on ACAG – the industry representative group charged with working with CAA on rule making.