

The CAPA Australia Pacific Aviation Summit is being held in Sydney at The Four Seasons Hotel, on 7-9 August 2013.

The event will be the pre-eminent aviation strategy summit for the region in 2013. CEOs from airlines and airports across Australia and NZ, plus a selection of leaders from airlines serving the region will present on the industry's crucial issues.

Alan Joyce (Qantas), James Hogan (Etihad), Jayne Hrdlicka (Jetstar), Azran Osman-Rani (AirAsia X), Sean Donohue (Virgin Australia), Kerrie Mather (Sydney Airport), Chris Woodruff (Melbourne Airport), Julianne Alroe (Brisbane Airport), Dennis Chant (Queensland Airports) and Mark Young (Adelaide Airport) are among some 110 VIP guests and speakers that have confirmed their attendance at this landmark event.

Sessions include the Growth markets to watch, the new duopoly on the Tasman, long haul LCCs, China's plans for the region, Qantas' game plan, the Virgin Australia transition, the roles of tourism and liberalisation and the partnership approach to attracting international services. There are dedicated streams on 9 August on Airport Innovation and Corporate Travel Innovation.

More information can be found here: <http://www.australiapacificaviationsummit.com>

We hope to see you in Sydney for this important event in August.