

Halldale Group Offer

A number of you may already subscribe to CAT: Civil Aviation Training Magazine, published by the Halldale Group in online and hard copy versions, about current training practices for pilots, cabin crew and maintenance staff throughout the civil airline training industry. Halldale has offered to add New Zealand trainers to their distribution list, for online and hard copy versions, at no cost. Six editions are produced each year.

According to the Halldale website, "CAT, The Journal for Civil Aviation Training, is the world's leading airline simulation and training magazine, with a circulation of over 17,000 copies. Each issue of the magazine typically contains five or more major articles, an extended news and analysis section, event reviews, an industry calendar and more. CAT has a regional and international focus and supports the global airline industry by providing the most comprehensive reporting on training challenges and effective training solutions."
