

PRESENTERS

Thomas Gibbons, McCaw Lewis, Hamilton

Thomas is a specialist property lawyer, with a focus on land development and land governance. His recent work includes subdivisions, development agreements, complex land covenant and easement issues, redevelopments, District Plan issues, and local government property. Thomas has special interests in unit titles, land covenant issues, and the application of property tools to planning matters. He has qualifications in law and planning, and is the author of Unit Titles Law and Practice (2nd ed, 2015), and A Practical Guide to the Land Transfer Act (LexisNexis, Wellington, 2017). Thomas is a member of the NZLS Property Transactions Committee, and sits on the board of the New Zealand Institute of Surveyors.

Robbie Muir, LINZ, Wellington

Robbie has worked in land title registration for many years. He has held the position of Registrar-General of Land since 2000, heading one of the regulatory units within Land Information New Zealand. Robbie was centrally involved in the development of Landonline and the Land Transfer Act reforms to enable computerised registration. His office worked with the Law Commission on the legislative review which led to the enactment of the Land Transfer Act 2017. Robbie has presented at numerous seminars and conferences on conveyancing matters over the years.
