

PRESENTERS

Lindsay Lloyd, Partner, MDS Law, Christchurch

Lindsay has been in practice for 34 years and he has been the trust account supervisor at MDS Law for many years. He was the inaugural chairman of the NZLS Property Law Section and remains on the Executive. Lindsay is currently on the Standards Committee of the Canterbury-Westland Branch of the NZLS and has also been a member of the NZLS Ethics Committee for several years. He practises predominantly in the areas of property, commercial law and trusts. Since the Canterbury earthquakes Lindsay has had extensive involvement advising commercial and private clients on a wide range of ensuing property issues, consequential remedies and insurance claims as well as dealing with the complexities of settlement specifically after the two major earthquakes.

Paul Michalik, Barrister, Wellington

Paul has 19 years' experience in litigation practice. He was a partner in two national firms before going to the bar in May 2011. Paul has specialised in insurance litigation since 1999. He has taught Law at Oxford University and has developed and teaches Victoria University's 300 Level Insurance Law course. Paul has published on civil procedure, equity and fiduciary duties, and insurance law. He writes the chapters on privilege and confidentiality for Cross on Evidence, (New Zealand Edition, Lexis Nexis).

The statements and conclusions contained in this booklet are those of the author(s) only and not those of the New Zealand Law Society. This booklet has been prepared for the purpose of a Continuing Legal Education course.
